Man Who Tried to Run Over Fort Worth PD Officers Sentenced to 40 Years in Prison

(Fort Worth, TX) – Vincent Lee Seaman was sentenced to 40 years in prison this week by State District Judge Scott Wisch for violating his probation for a prior conviction of Engaging in Organized Crime. Seaman violated his probation in April of this year during a violent encounter with Fort Worth Police.

After being called to a disturbance at a Fort Worth apartment complex, Fort Worth PD officers encountered Seaman in the complex parking lot. He tried to run over 5 officers, and crashed into 8 parked cars. He was arrested after crashing his vehicle at the scene.

Seaman was sentenced to 5 years' probation in 2017 for admitting to wielding a handgun as a known gang member. He was serving the supervisory term at the time of his April arrest, and prosecutors petitioned the court to revoke his probation in exchange for prison time.

"This Defendant posed a danger to the community, and certainly to police officers that night," said prosecutor Lisa Callaghan. "We were pleased that justice was served yesterday."

Judge Wisch sentenced Seaman in the 372nd District Court on Thursday.

Charges of Evading Arrest, Possession of a Controlled Substance, and multiple charges of Aggravated Assault of a Public Servant, and Criminal Mischief $30,000 - $150,000 are still pending against Seaman.

"Officers put their lives on the line daily. and when people intentionally endanger our officers this is the outcome they should expect," said prosecutor Michael Schneider.
