Media Advisory: Honoring Crime Victim Rights

(Fort Worth, TX) – Next week is National Crime Victims' Rights Week, a time to promote awareness about crime victim rights and honor survivors.

On Monday, our office, along with Tarrant County leaders and victim service professionals from our law enforcement agencies, will host events at subcourthouses throughout Tarrant County. These events will honor crime victims as we are determined that their voices will be heard in Tarrant County.

Events will be at these locations at 10:30 a.m. Monday, April 24, 2023:

- Tarrant County Administration Building, 100 East Weatherford Street, Fort Worth
- Precinct 1 Southwest Sub-Courthouse, 6551 Granbury Road, Fort Worth
- Precinct 2 Sub-Courthouse, 700 East Abram Street, Arlington
- Precinct 3 Northeast Sub-Courthouse, 645 Grapevine Highway, Hurst
- Precinct 4 Northwest Sub-Courthouse, 6713 Telephone Road, Lake Worth

This year's theme is Survivor Voices: Elevate. Engage. Effect Change. Our goal is to broadcast the voices of survivors and let them know they will be supported, believed, and heard.

This week has been recognized since 1981, providing a way for law enforcement to renew its commitment to crime victims every year.
