Anna Tinsley Williams Named Communications Officer for Tarrant County Criminal District Attorney's Office

(Fort Worth, TX) - Tarrant County Criminal District Attorney Sharen Wilson announced today that Anna Tinsley Williams has been named Communications Officer.

Tinsley Williams, a graduate of Baylor University, comes from the Fort Worth Star Telegram, where she served as Senior Reporter for more than a decade covering local, state, and national politics. She has more than twenty-eight years of experience as a reporter.

As Communications Officer, she will provide strategic direction for both internal and external communications goals and operations, serving as a liaison to the media, public and other governmental entities. Her first day at work will be Monday, August 24, 2020.

"Anna brings significant expertise in the field of journalism and communications. She is well-respected in Tarrant County community for her professionalism, writing, and relationships within the community", said Criminal District Attorney Sharen Wilson. "I believe she will be a tremendous addition to our office."

"I'm excited to join the Criminal District Attorney's office and share information about the important work being done there," Tinsley Williams said.
