Update on case about shooting of Tarrant County deputy

(Fort Worth) – Regarding the case against Leland Williams, DA Phil Sorrells said:

"A magistrate set the bond at $100,000. The Fort Worth Police Department sent the case to us. We filed the charge of attempted capital murder and are requesting that the district judge raise the bond to $500,000."

"We are going to do everything we can to protect those who protect us."

"I am going to make sure that, like Officer Brown, we go the extra mile in seeking justice."
