

HOME-ARP ALLOCATION PLAN

March 2023

Prepared by Tarrant County Community Development

Background

The American Rescue Plan (ARP) provides $5 billion to assist individuals or households who are homeless, at risk of homelessness, and other vulnerable populations by providing housing, rental assistance, supportive services, and non-congregate shelter, to reduce homelessness and increase housing stability across the country. These grant funds are administered through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME).

Tarrant County Consortium was awarded $5,281,656 in HOME-ARP grant funding. Of this amount, a total of $792,248 will be used for administrative and planning purposes and $4,489,408 will be used for eligible activities to serve the needs of qualifying populations<sup>1</sup> through the performance period ending September 30, 2030.

Consultation Process

In accordance with Section V.A. of the Notice, a Participating Jurisdiction (PJ) must consult with the following:

- Continuum of Care (CoC) serving the PJ's geographic area
- Homeless service providers
- Domestic violence service providers
- Veterans' groups
- Public housing agencies (PHAs)
- Public agencies that address the needs of the qualifying populations and
- Public or private organizations that address fair housing, civil rights, and the needs of persons with disabilities

To meet this requirement, Tarrant County Community Development staff reached out to more than 100 community stakeholders, including those outlined above and members of qualifying populations, to gain feedback. A complete list of stakeholders that were contacted with a request to share feedback via consultation can be found in the Appendix of this document, although not all participated.

Survey

Tarrant County Community Development staff prepared the 2022 Housing Survey with 29 questions using Microsoft Forms and invited stakeholders to complete it online or on a paper version of the same survey, which was manually entered by the Tarrant County Community Development team. Responses were collected from October 3 through December 19, 2022. More than 440 surveys were completed, including more than half (56%) with experience in homelessness, either personally or professionally. Participants who requested a follow-up call or to share more information were contacted by phone or email, but none participated in a stakeholder interview; many were looking for resources and were connected appropriately.

<sup>1</sup> HOME-ARP is designed to support specific Qualifying Populations (QPs), as follows: (1) Homeless; (2) at-risk of homelessness; (3) fleeing or attempting to flee domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking; and (4) other populations where assistance would prevent the family's homelessness or serve those with the greatest risk of housing instability.

A copy of the .pdf version of the 2022 Housing Survey is included in the Appendix of this document along with comprehensive survey results.

Summary of Feedback Received

- The top three (3) preferred housing types: (1) single-family; (2) townhome; and (3) accessory dwelling units (ADUs) and duplexes.<sup>2</sup>
- Most respondents were households of one (1) to two (2) people.
- 56% of respondents had delayed medical care, prescriptions, buying food, paying bills, or other needs because they could not afford them.
- The top three (3) household needs: (1) Access to healthcare; (2) rent/mortgage assistance; and (3) home repairs or modifications. The next grouping of household needs included help with financial/legal issues, transportation assistance, and caregiver services.
- 41% of respondents spend more than 30% of their household income on rent or mortgage.
- 51% of respondents spent more than 15% of their household budget on transportation costs.
- 40% of respondents spent more than 12% of their household income on medical and health insurance costs.

Stakeholder Interviews

Tarrant County Community Development staff conducted several stakeholder interviews via Zoom with representatives from the Continuum of Care (February 21, 2023), Arlington Housing Authority (December 29, 2022), Center for Transforming Lives (February 13, 2023), Fort Worth Housing Solutions (January 12, 2023), Our Community Our Kids (February 3, 2023), Tarrant County Housing Assistance Office (January 18, 2023), and Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) (February 3, 2023).

Summary of Feedback Received

- Some of the biggest challenges clients are facing include housing services for the increased number of families experiencing homelessness since COVID-19, increased trauma, working with landlords is increasingly difficult, and the competitive housing market.
- We need housing units – and landlords to take rental assistance; Not In My Back Yard (NIMBY) continues to be a challenge.
- There is a lack of focus on families at-risk. We have not been able to stop generational poverty and/or trauma.
- Coordinated Entry should include those at-risk, not just those experiencing homelessness (i.e., those on housing voucher waiting lists)
- Food deserts, transportation, and healthcare continue to be big challenges for families.
- Some families are not ready for housing yet.
- The economy changed with COVID-19 and jobs went away for different reasons. If school wasn't in session, it was especially difficult for families with children to find employment. Further, starting a small business became increasingly difficult with COVID-19.
- There is still significant stigma around mental health and having access to affordable, quality mental health care is increasingly important. Additionally, access to health services is critical for the development of young children.

- Prioritizing childcare is critical for our economy. Parents need to be able to get to education, job training, and careers.
- Many families have a [criminal] history and are ineligible for housing vouchers; being able to clear records would allow increased access to services.
- There is a point in Child Protective Services (CPS) cases where the family is headed toward reunification and they find housing, but they need essential supportive services (e.g., budgeting, financial empowerment, life skills, parenting classes) afterwards to make it work; maintaining housing can be difficult. Sometimes these supportive services need to be held at different times of day so they can be accessible to households.
- DV shelters are a huge help, but not everyone wants to admit to being in those relationships.
- Systems can be very difficult to navigate; create systems that work.

Stakeholder Call Sessions

More than 90 stakeholders were invited to participate in one of two (2) stakeholder calls during the month of January, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, to gather stakeholder feedback on housing and service needs in Tarrant County, especially as it related to the four (4) qualifying populations. During the call, Tarrant County Community Development staff provided a brief overview of the HOME-ARP program and eligible activities, followed by collaborative discussions using Padlet, an online collaborative tool. The same information was covered during both calls, so it was not necessary for participants to attend both.

Summary of Feedback Received

Based on HOME-ARP eligible activities and what you know about existing services in Tarrant County, what would you fund if you could wave a magic wand...

- More general case management for general population – nonprofit professional to help bring all the pieces together
- More beds for families in shelters
- The County/nonprofit buys an apartment building and just offers transitional housing with case management for survival jobs procurement of residents
- A more coordinated effort in City and County housing assistance programs and timelines
- More shelters without limitations of age, number of family members, or level of disability
- Employers who partner with nonprofits and both organizations partner to support housing, transportation, and childcare
- A more coordinated, timely, and affordable countywide public transportation system with solutions for the edges of our County (Burleson, Weatherford, Grand Prairie)
- Safer/confidential shelters/transitional housing for victims of sexual assault and other violent crimes not related to DV
- Easy streamlined application process that is easier for clients and service providers to understand and access
- Change eligibility or offer alternate eligibility requirements for undocumented [residents] to access services
- Rental assistance for working poor – those who make too much for government assistance or other services

- Create onsite services at housing locations to increase housing stability – should include case management, addiction services, mental health services, etc.
- Prioritize affordable units in the non-siloed areas (i.e., do not put affordable units in food deserts, childcare deserts, or off transportation routes), but give them access to the same resources where development is happening
- Mixed-income housing
- Affordable housing for non-chronic homelessness

Human-centered Design Session at True Worth Place

On February 22, 2023, Tarrant County Community Development staff hosted an education and work session at True Worth Place to answer the question, “What do you need most?” Participants were each given a stack of the same amount of Monopoly money to put under photos and descriptions of McKinney-Vento supportive services, an eligible activity under HOME-ARP. More than 20 people in the qualifying populations participated in this human-centered design exercise. Selected photos from the workshop are included in the Appendix.

Limitations

It should be noted that Consultations were not limited solely to the Tarrant County Consortium service area due to the boundary of the Tarrant County Consortium service area, location of the Continuum of Care (CoC), service providers, stakeholders, and the qualifying populations HOME-ARP is designed to serve; the majority of which reside in Arlington and Fort Worth.

Additionally, 52 Surveys were entered manually into Microsoft Forms. During this process, it was determined there had been some confusion on how to rank the items on Question 1, “Which of these are most important to you? Please rank the following with 1 being the most important to you and 10 being the least important to you?” as several respondents listed several items as being the most important and other items were skipped. Other questions were not controlled for individual household situations or needs (e.g., households with children, households with disabilities), so relevant follow-up questions pertaining to these specific groups may be underrepresented.

Public Participation

In accordance with Section V.B. of the Notice, PJs must provide for and encourage citizen participation in the development of the HOME-ARP Allocation Plan. A copy of the Public Notice is included in the Appendix.

Date of Public Notice	February 21, 2023
Public Comment Period	February 21 – March 21, 2023
Date of Public Hearing	March 21, 2023
Location of Public Hearing	Tarrant County Administration Building Commissioners Courtroom, 5 th Floor 100 East Weatherford Street Fort Worth, Texas 76196

The Tarrant County Commissioners Courtroom is wheelchair accessible. Persons with disabilities or limited English proficiency (LEP) who plan to attend the meeting and who may need reasonable accommodations were encouraged to contact the Commissioners Court Liaison at 817-884-1234 or email nmrose@tarrantcountytexas.gov at least 48 hours prior to the meeting so that appropriate arrangements could be made. Even so, if Tarrant County does not receive notification at least 48 hours prior to the meeting, Tarrant County would make a reasonable attempt to provide the necessary accommodations.

To broaden participation, stakeholders and survey respondents were contacted during the comment period to provide additional feedback on the proposed HOME-ARP activities and funding through email, phone, and the Tarrant County Community Development website. In addition, stakeholders and survey respondents were encouraged to share the Allocation Plan with others in hopes additional comments and recommendations would be received. Comments that did not pertain to the eligible use of HOME-ARP funding were not considered.

Additional Public Comment received:

To facilitate access to affordable housing, providers should coordinate to compile a one-stop shop for Tarrant County residents to find out what affordable housing is available, what criteria is required for renting and receiving rental assistance, a comprehensive list of rental assistance sources, and assistance in completing a uniform application.

Staff Response: Affordable housing remains an incredibly complex challenge and increased coordination between systems and partners is necessary. Tarrant County staff is currently reviewing opportunities for partnership, education, and data sharing and will communicate any changes to Tarrant County residents.

The actual stakeholders aren't the ones we are giving the money to or providing the services, the actual ones are the ones we are receiving the services and I want to make sure those are consulted. The resident then encouraged Tarrant County staff to work with the Tarrant County Homeless Coalition to fill any service gaps.

Staff Response: Tarrant County staff reached out to many stakeholders, especially those that may benefit from and/or be assisted by the funding set forth in this plan. Tarrant County continues to work collaboratively with the Tarrant County Homeless Coalition and will share the survey and a copy of this plan with the organization.

Needs Assessment and Gaps Analysis

In accordance with Section V.C.1. of the Notice, a PJ must evaluate the size and demographic composition of all four (4) of the qualifying populations within its boundaries and assess the unmet needs of each of those populations.

To meet this requirement, Tarrant County Community Development Staff reached out to the Tarrant County Homeless Coalition (TCHC), which serves as the local Continuum of Care (CoC) for the Tarrant County service area. While Tarrant County does not serve Arlington, Fort Worth, or Grand Prairie, the data included in the table below does include these populations due to the nature of how the data is collected, service area of the CoC, and funding allocations.

Experiencing Homelessness

Within Tarrant County, there were 5,011 households who experienced homelessness between October 1, 2021 and September 30, 2022, the most recent time period at the time of publication. 85 percent (85%), 4,260 households, were adult-only households; 12 percent (12%), 601 households, were families; and three percent (3%), 150 households, were child-only households. A more complete demographic breakdown of Heads of Households (HoH) is included in the tables below.

Gender
Female	2,131 (42.5%)
Male	2,813 (56.1%)

Unmet Housing and Service Needs

Unfortunately, available housing units for people experiencing homelessness are at an all-time low. Housing searches are currently taking much longer due to the available inventory and tight housing market. Affordable housing is in high demand from all income levels, which gives landlords the ability to be more selective, often opting out of accepting any type of rental assistance, especially from people exiting homelessness.<sup>3</sup> Source of Income Discrimination, the practice of refusing to rent to a housing applicant because of that person’s lawful form of income, is currently allowed under Texas law that bars local source of income laws.<sup>4</sup>

According to the Tarrant County Homeless Coalition’s apartment navigation database, there are only about 350 housing units available that will accept the CoC’s housing vouchers; the system does not have enough dedicated and available units to move people into stable housing.

The Tarrant County Homeless Coalition examined specific housing needs as it relates to this population. Of roughly 1,287 households that experience homelessness over a one (1) month time period, approximately 338 households (26%) need short- to mid-term housing interventions, such as diversion, rapid exit, or rapid rehousing vouchers, a need met by the current delivery system. 450 households experiencing chronic homelessness need permanent supportive housing (PSH). It is estimated that an additional 225 dedicated units are needed to provide stable housing to these households. 250 non-chronic households need permanent supportive housing (PSH) and another 250 households need additional housing types, such as shared housing or tiny homes. In summary, Tarrant County Homeless Coalition estimates the system needs an additional 725 housing units to house those currently experiencing homelessness in order to reach and maintain functional zero.

At-risk of Experiencing Homelessness<sup>5</sup>

One of the best predictors of future homelessness is households who are formerly homeless. One of the top goals of the local CoC is to ensure that formerly homeless households remain stably housed through housing programs and support services. Additionally, the CoC’s proactive landlord engagement team works closely with case managers and landlords to connect at-risk households to services and other funding sources, as available.

As of Q4 2022, there are 2,932 people in either rapid rehousing or permanent housing programs. Of these, 53 percent (53%) are male, 46 percent (46%) are female, and one percent (1%) is unknown. 81 percent (81%) of households are adult households only, while the remaining 19 percent (19%) are families with child(ren).

It should be noted that Black households are disproportionately impacted by homelessness; 58 percent (58%) of people experiencing homelessness are Black while only 16 percent (16%) of Tarrant County’s total population is Black. 36 percent (36%) of people experiencing homelessness are White even though 62 percent (62%) of Tarrant County’s population is White.

Additionally, it is estimated that 55,785 renter households in Tarrant County are severely cost burdened (i.e., housing costs are greater than or equal to 50 percent (50%) of household income). 45,315 renter households with income less than or equal to 30 percent (30%) have at least one (1) of four (4) severe housing problems.<sup>6</sup>

Unmet Housing and Service Needs

Households who pay a large share of their income for housing must typically shift money from other basic needs such as food, medicine, and clothing to help pay the rent. Many are just one setback away – a reduction in work hours or unexpected expenses such as a needed car repair, for example – from losing their homes.<sup>7</sup> Rental assistance and housing voucher programs are helpful at addressing these needs. In addition, supportive services, such as funding for childcare, transportation, and other financial assistance, may help alleviate the monetary shift to pay rent for existing at-risk households.

Fleeing, or Attempting to Flee, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, Stalking, or Human Trafficking

Between October 1, 2021 and September 30, 2022, 1,225 Head of Households (HoHs), 24% of those experiencing homelessness, reported being a victim or survivor of domestic violence. Roughly 931 (76%) are adult-only households, 245 (20%) are family households, and 48 (4%) are child-only households.<sup>8</sup> Additional demographics are provided in the tables below.

It is estimated that one in three (1/3) women in Texas will be victims of domestic violence.<sup>9</sup>

Unmet Housing and Service Needs<sup>10</sup>

SafeHaven of Tarrant County operates Tarrant County’s only two (2) domestic violence emergency shelters, located in Arlington and Fort Worth, and is Tarrant County’s only state-designated family violence program. While in shelter, survivors have access to services including case management, children’s and adult counseling, group therapy, childcare, legal support, and more. All services provided are free of charge.

According to SafeHaven of Tarrant County, one of the biggest challenges for survivors leaving shelter is finding stable and affordable housing. Without housing and necessary supports, the chances of a survivor returning to their abuser rise.

Other Populations

In addition to those currently experiencing homelessness, there is a significant number of households that are facing eviction in Tarrant County. Most recently, there were 179 households facing eviction during a single week (February 1-8, 2023).<sup>11</sup> Further, it is estimated that more than 234,808 households (renter and owner) in Tarrant County are cost burdened and spend more than 30 percent (30%) of household income on housing costs.<sup>12</sup>

When households are cost burdened, they have little left over each month to spend on other necessities, such as food, clothing, utilities, and healthcare. Black and Hispanic households are almost twice as likely as White households to be cost burdened. Past evictions, foreclosures, and criminal history also contribute to housing instability.<sup>13</sup>

Unmet Housing and Service Needs

Cost burdened households may have difficulty affording necessities such as food, clothing, transportation, and medical care,<sup>14</sup> forcing households to make tradeoffs, depending on their individual household needs. On average, renters in affordable properties are facing rent increases of 6.7% over the last year, with an affordable market monthly rent per unit of $1,025, compared to renters in market rate properties that are facing rent increases of 3% over the last year, with a market monthly rent per unit of $1,373.<sup>15</sup> Additionally, cost burdened homeowner households may not be able to maintain their property, delaying essential maintenance potentially increasing safety and code compliance concerns.

Additional Factors

Childcare

It should be noted that in addition to stable, affordable housing, high-quality, affordable childcare is essential to families' economic stability. Unfortunately, due to inadequate funding [across the United States], just 1 in 6 children eligible for childcare assistance – and 1 in 5 families with children eligible for housing assistance – receives it. As a result, many low-income families struggle to pay for childcare and housing, and many are forced into lower-quality or less stable childcare arrangements and housing that is overcrowded, substandard, or located in neighborhoods with fewer opportunities for parents and children.<sup>16</sup>

Criminal Backgrounds

Many formerly incarcerated individuals, as well as individuals who were convicted but not incarcerated, encounter significant barriers to securing housing, including public and other federally subsidized housing, because of their criminal history. In some cases, even individuals who were arrested but not convicted face difficulty in securing housing based on their prior arrest. Across the United States, African Americans and Hispanics are arrested, convicted, and incarcerated at rates disproportionate to their share of the general population.<sup>17</sup>

Transportation

A lack of public transportation options continues to burden Tarrant County households. The Center for Neighborhood Technology estimates 323,606 households in Tarrant County, or more than 45 percent (45%) total households, spend more than 45 percent on housing and transportation costs combined.<sup>18</sup> Only five percent (5%) of neighborhoods in Tarrant County are considered location efficient, resulting in increased annual transportation costs and negative climate impact.<sup>19</sup>

Methodology

Tarrant County researched the level of needs and gaps by reviewing a variety of data sources, conducting a survey, in-depth stakeholder interviews, drop-in call sessions, and a human-centered design session at True Worth Place, Tarrant County's primary day shelter. Needs and gaps will continue to be assessed throughout the term of HOME-ARP funding.

HOME-ARP Activities and Funding

Per the Notice, HOME-ARP funds can be used for four (4) eligible activities: (1) production or preservation of affordable housing; (2) tenant-based rental assistance (TBRA); (3) supportive services, including services defined at 24 CFR 578.53(e), homeless prevention services, and housing counseling; and (4) purchase and development of non-congregate shelter.

For the purposes of this Allocation Plan, Tarrant County will focus on providing tenant-based rental assistance (TBRA) and supportive services as outlined in the table below. As Tarrant County currently has significant HOME funding available for the development of affordable rental housing, other activities such as TBRA and supportive services will provide essential supports for qualifying populations.

Activity	Funding Amount	Percent of Grant	Statutory Limit

Tarrant County will issue a Request for Proposals (RFP) for community partners to carry out the eligible activities described above, particularly as it relates to TBRA and supportive service needs outlined in this document. Applications will be evaluated on the selection criteria outlined in the RFP and must score at least 75 points to be considered for funding. Selection criteria may include, but not be limited to: quality of proposal, financial feasibility, organizational capacity and experience with federal funding, community impact, community engagement, economic and community inclusion, and proposal readiness.

Tarrant County will provide administration support, technical assistance, and review of reports and reimbursement requests for community partners. Tarrant County is responsible for the administration of HOME and HOME-ARP funding and did not engage with a subrecipient or contractor in the development of this Allocation Plan.

HOME-ARP Housing Production Goals

In October 2022, the Tarrant County Commissioners Court allocated $32.5 million in ARPA funding to increase the number of affordable housing units for people experiencing homelessness. Additionally, the City of Fort Worth is expected to use nearly $9 million in HOME-ARP funding to develop 125 permanent supportive housing units to help meet ongoing demand.

While there is significant need for affordable housing options in Tarrant County, Tarrant County does not intend to produce additional affordable housing under HOME-ARP due to limited interest from the development community to utilize existing HOME funding within Tarrant County Consortium’s service area. An open Request for Proposals (RFP) for HOME funding for development activities is currently available online and will remain open until all funds are committed: Request for Proposals \(RFP\) Tarrant County HOME Funds.

Tarrant County will continue to work with our Consortium members and the development community to increase the amount of affordable housing options for Tarrant County residents through education, grant funding, incentive programs, partnerships, and resources.

Preferences

Due to the diverse needs of the community, Tarrant County Consortium will not establish preferences or methods of prioritization for HOME-ARP. Adding a preference or limitation not previously described will require a substantial amendment and a public comment period in accordance with Section V.C.6. of the Notice.

Referral Methods

Tarrant County Consortium is not required to describe referral methods in this Allocation Plan.
